NATIONAL BREAST CANCER COALITION FUND

grassroots advocacy in action

WomanTours and the National Breast Cancer Coalition Fund join for the ninth cross-country bike excursion – The Southern Tier – for women to fight breast cancer through action and advocacy.

For 15 years, the National Breast Cancer Coalition Fund has empowered and trained advocates to be effective in every aspect of the fight to end breast cancer. We give women the tools to make their own informed decisions and to work besides legislative, scientific and clinical decision makers. NBCCF also helps guide the public through the maze of information on breast cancer. NBCCF's sister organization, the National Breast Cancer Coalition, trains advocates at the national, state and local levels to lobby for public policies that impact breast cancer research, diagnosis and treatment.

All proceeds from Cycle for Life tour sponsorships are donated to NBCCF and are tax-deductible to the fullest extent permitted by federal law. Please print all information for acknowledgment and tax purposes. Thank you.
